

NATIONAL RISK MANAGEMENT INITIATIVE (NRMI)

Join us for an insightful discussion on strategies to navigate financial and agronomic risks in cropping.

FAR Australia's Nick Poole and Ben Morris will be joined by leading industry expert Eric Nankivel who will provide valuable insights on how to mitigate potential risks and maximise profitability in the cropping industry. Whether you own a small farm or manage a large agribusiness, this seminar will help you identify and manage financial risks that could impact your bottom line. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from experienced professionals and connect with peers in the industry. Register today for CropShield: Navigating Financial and Agronomic Risks in Cropping.
